Helping Teens Find Families – Fundraiser

Submitted by Gail Amidzich, DCFYI

The Family & Youth Initiative (FYI) will hold its annual fundraising reception, “Establishing Roots,” at Eastern Market’s North Hall on Wednesday, October 10, 6:30-9 p.m. The nonprofit works exclusively with older foster children in the District. Nearly 600 teens now await families, or an adult who will be in their lives forever.

Tickets ($50 adult; $35 student/nonprofit/young professional) include wine/beer/soft drinks and tastings from local restaurants. There are also enticing silent auction items including restaurant and show gift cards, a weekend getaway, and hand-made crafts. For more information, or to find out how you can help change a foster child’s life, visit dcfyi.org/roots.

Buzz Distributors and Brochure Boxes

Volunteer distributors are needed for several blocks. This is a good way for young people to earn community service hours.

Donations and/or assistance with printing are needed. These donations are fully tax-deductible. Checks should be made payable to NLPNA and delivered to 160 Tennessee Ave. NE.

Maury Yard and Bake Sale

Maury Elementary will have its annual sale at the school, on September 15, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sale items will include clothes, toys, house-wares, and more. You can drop off donations at the school's temporary quarters on the Eliot-Hine campus (1840 Constitution Ave. NE) during the week prior to the event. This is a great opportunity to clear your closets and score bargains while supporting a neighborhood school.

A Literary Feast

The Literary Feast is a series of dinner parties held at homes across Capitol Hill, all on one evening. Proceeds support the Capitol Hill Community Foundation's Grants to Neighborhood Schools.

This year's event will be held Saturday, October 27. Visit aliteraryfeast.org, or email info@aliteraryfeast.org for more information. Registration closes September 30.
