The Capitol Hill Restoration Society Presents...

... "Improving Energy Efficiency," the last in a series of Preservation Cafes on the topic of sustainability. Architect Nakita Reed, of Encore Sustainable Design, will make a presentation on improving energy efficiency of our historic homes. Wednesday, May 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the NE Library, 330 7th St. NE.

... and 61st Annual House and Garden Tour

This year, the tour includes 9 homes between Capitol South and Eastern Market Metro. Mothers Day weekend, May 12 and 13. $35 in advance; $40 the weekend of. Visit www.chrs.org for details and ticket sales.

Buzz Donations and Distributors

The Buzz relies on donations and donated printing services from generous community members. Checks can be made payable to NLPNA and delivered to 160 Tennessee Ave. NE.

Distributors are needed for several blocks. This is a good way for young people to earn community service hours.

Native Americans in Congressional Cemetery

An illustrated lecture on emissaries who died negotiating treaties or lobbying the government, Monday, May 21, 7:30 p.m. at Hill Center, 921 Pennsylvania Ave. SE. Reservations required: 549-4172 or hillcenterdc.org/event/overbeck-lecture-native-americans/

NLPNA Yard Sale Trash or Treasure?

The North Lincoln Park Neighborhood Association (NLPNA) yard sale will be held Saturday, May 19 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the triangle park between the 1300 blocks of North Carolina Ave. and A St. NE (between 13th & 14th streets).

This annual event is our primary source of funding for community-building activities including tree plantings and Buzz distribution.

Tax deductible contributions (receipts available) can be dropped off the morning of the event. We can't accept magazines, upholstered furniture, computer monitors, or old-style TVs – if Goodwill won't take the item, we can't either.

Andrea Johnson is leading the effort again this year. If you have questions or can volunteer to work the event, please email her at andrea.grace.johnson@gmail.com, with "Yard sale" as the subject.
